The Basics of Hearing God's Voice

Before diving into Priscilla's specific methodologies, it's essential to grasp the fundamental principles that underpin the ability to hear God's voice.

1. The Voice Is Not a Sound

God's voice is not a literal audible tone; it is a spiritual communicationthat can manifest in various ways: thoughts, feelings, circumstances, or the words of a trusted fellow believer.

2. It Requires a Listening Ear

Just as we develop a keen ear for music, we must cultivate a spiritual earto recognize God's promptings. This involves:

- Silencing distractions.
- Praying for clarity.
- Reading Scripture with an open heart.

3. Confirmation Is Key

God's voice is often confirmed through Scripture, prayer, and the counsel of mature believers. A single prompt is rarely enough; it must align with the Bible's teachings and the broader Christian community.

4. It Is Contextual

God's voice is tailored to our life circumstances. Understanding the context—our personal challenges, opportunities, and spiritual maturity—helps us differentiate between divine guidance and personal desire.

Priscilla Shirer's Core Teachings on Discerning the Voice

Priscilla's approach to discerning the voice of God is rooted in Scripture and enriched by her personal experience. Below are the primary themes she emphasizes across her books, sermons, and workshops.

1. The Role of Prayer

Prayer is the bridge between the human heart and God. Priscilla teaches that:

- Prayer opens our hearts to divine influence.
- Consistent, heartfelt prayer builds a habit of listening.
- Prayer should be a two way conversation, not just a monologue.

2. The Power of Scripture

Priscilla stresses that Scripture is God's voice in written form. She encourages believers to:

- Memorize key verses that speak to discernment.
- Use the Bible as a filter to test any spiritual prompt.
- Allow Scripture to shape their expectations of what God might say.

3. The Influence of the Holy Spirit

She highlights that the Holy Spirit is the primary interpreter of God's voice. According to Priscilla:

- The Holy Spirit can speak through feelings, dreams, or the words of others.
- Developing a relationship with the Holy Spirit involves surrender and obedience.
- Spiritual gifts, such as prophecy or discernment, can aid in hearing God.

4. The Importance of Community

Priscilla believes that discernment is not a solitary endeavor. She advises believers to:

- Seek counsel from mature Christians.
- Participate in small groups or prayer circles.
- Validate prompts through the collective wisdom of the church.

5. Discernment as a Process

Unlike a one off revelation, discernment is an evolving process. Priscilla outlines three stages:

1. Awareness – Recognizing the prompt.
2. Testing – Checking alignment with Scripture and counsel.
3. Action – Responding in obedience.

Step by Step Guide to Hearing God

Below is a practical, step by step guide inspired by Priscilla Shirer's teachings. Follow these steps to strengthen your ability to discern the voice of God.

Step 1: Cultivate a Prayerful Life

Begin with a daily prayer routine. Set aside 15–30 minutes each day, preferably in the morning or before bed. Focus on:

- Thanking God for His presence.
- Asking for a listening heart.
- Surrendering personal agendas.

Step 2: Engage with Scripture

Read the Bible with the intent to listen. Use a study guide or a devotional that emphasizes discernment. Key passages to memorize include:

- John 10:27 – "My sheep hear my voice."
- 1 John 5:14 – "We can ask anything according to his will."
- Proverbs 3:5 6 – "Trust in the Lord with all your heart."

Step 3: Seek the Holy Spirit's Guidance

Invite the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts and emotions. Pay attention to:

- Sudden feelings of peace or conviction.
- Recurring thoughts that align with Scripture.

- Dreams or visions that carry a biblical message.

Step 4: Test Through Community

Share your prompt with a trusted mentor or small group. Ask:

- Does this align with biblical truth?
- Does it make sense in the context of my life?
- Is there a pattern of consistency in past prompts?

Step 5: Respond in Obedience

Once you've confirmed the prompt, take action. This may involve:

- Speaking out in a worship setting.
- Making a career change.
- Starting a ministry or outreach.

Step 6: Reflect and Adjust

After acting, reflect on the outcome. Ask yourself:

- Did the result align with Scripture?
- Did I feel a sense of peace or fulfillment?
- What lessons can I apply to future discernment?

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. How can I tell if what I'm hearing is truly God's voice?

Priscilla advises using a three point test

1. Scriptural Alignment – Does the prompt reflect biblical truth?
2. Peace Test – Does it bring inner peace or a sense of calm?
3. Community Confirmation – Does a mature Christian confirm it?

2. Can the voice of God be mistaken for my own desires?

Yes, it's common to confuse personal longing with divine guidance. Priscilla recommends:

- Comparing the prompt with Scripture.
- Seeking counsel from mature believers.
- Waiting for a period of confirmation before acting.

3. What if I feel uncertain or anxious after hearing a prompt?

Uncertainty is a natural part of discernment. Priscilla suggests:

- Praying for clarity.
- Documenting the prompt and reflecting on it over several days.
- Seeking counsel from a trusted mentor.

4. How do I maintain a consistent listening habit?

Priscilla recommends setting daily reminders such as:

- Prayer alarms on your phone.
- Scripture verses written on sticky notes.
- Weekly accountability meetings.

5. Can I discern God’s voice in large or small decisions?

Yes. Priscilla emphasizes that the voice of God is present in all aspects of life, from major life choices to everyday decisions. The key is to approach each situation with the same discernment process.

Practical Application: Daily Practices

To help you implement Priscilla’s teachings, here are some actionable habits you can start today.

Morning Listening Ritual

1. Start with a short prayer of gratitude.
2. Read a short passage from the Daily Devotional or a favorite verse.
3. Journal any thoughts or feelings that arise.

Evening Reflection

1. Review the day’s events.
2. Identify moments where you felt a prompt or guidance.
3. Cross check with Scripture and note any alignment.

Weekly Discipleship Session

- Meet with a small group or mentor to discuss discernment experiences.
- Share challenges and receive constructive feedback.
- Set goals for the upcoming week.
